Welcome back scholars! It's great to see you!

This week's Positivity Project character strength is Open Mindedness. Today's challenge: Open-minded people do not jump to conclusions. Instead, they seek out and examine all of the available evidence before forming an opinion. Pay close attention to your own thinking. When you feel yourself jumping to conclusions, pause and ask yourself, what evidence leads me think this way. Open-mindedness doesn't simply mean going along with what you don't believe in; it means considering the reasoning of others and all available evidence before forming your own opinion.

Attention 8th graders interested in going on the Washington DC trip. There will be an informational meeting Monday at 6:00pm in the DMS cafeteria. Registration for the trip and fundraising opportunities will be discussed. If you are unable to make it to the meeting please stop by Ms. Green's room (210) the following day to pick up registration information.
