Professor to work with DMS bands next week

On February 13, Professor John Madden, Associate Professor of Music, Associate Director of Bands and Director of the Spartan Marching Band at Michigan State University will be working with the Davison Middle School bands during first and third hours.

"Mr. Madden is a highly sought after clinician and is an outstanding conductor and teacher," said DMS Band Director Matt DuPrey. "We are in for a real treat having him work with us!"

Stocker, Lobban and Miller named Coaches of the Year

Congratulations to Matt Lobban and Bruce Miller. Both are being honored as Assistant Coaches of the Year for 2012 by the Michigan High School Baseball Coaches Association.

Congratulations are also in order for Darci Stocker, Girls' Varsity golf coach. Darci has been named Coach of the Year by the Michigan Interscholastic Golf Coaches Association. Coach Stocker led a young, inexperienced team to the state finals this past season, winning regionals along the way.

15 DHS students for title of Davison Idol

DHS students will vie for the title of Davison Idol on Wednesday, Feb. 13. The event, sponsored by the DECA Marketing Club, will begin at 7 p.m. in the auditorium. Tickets are $5. All proceeds will benefit Outreach East. The contestants include:

- Casey Aumaugher, senior. "I have so much fun singing and performing. I started singing as soon as I was talking."
- Jingnan Chen, sophomore. "When I sing, I experience any emotions to their deepest. For instance, if I am sad and I sing, I feel the lyrics."
- Kyra Flowers, senior, says she was born to sing. Kyra also plays several musical instruments.
- Paige Guest, sophomore. "Being the next Davison Idol, to me, would be a big step toward my future."
- Tyler Hall, sophomore. "I'm funny and charismatic. I can easily represent the qualities of a Davison Idol. Plus my sassiness in songs help."
- Jenna Holt, senior. "I like to sing because it's a talent I've been blessed with since I was little."
- Hannah Keeler, sophomore. "I love singing because it keeps me calm. Singing is my safe haven when everything else fails."
- Joseph Kennedy, senior. "I literally was born singing Pavarotti."
- Morgan Lewis, junior. "I love to sing because of my mom. She is an amazing singer and has been an inspiration to me to pursue singing."
- Jake Rose, sophomore, says "singing is a thing I love."
- Joel Seidell, senior. "I haven't been open about my singing until this summer with the help of my girlfriend, and from then on I have been working on singing publically and now I am in Davison Idol..."
- Josh Shirah, junior. "All that is left unsaid can be shown in music."
- Bridgette Slezak, freshmen. "I like to sing because I can express my feelings through song and emotion. I have been singing ever since I could talk."
- Austin Szumowicz, sophomore. "Music is what I love and when I sing and perform, I let go of my problems and just let loose. I've been singing since I was in first grade when people kept asking me to sing "Just Can't Wait to Be King" from the Lion King."
- Sarah Taipalus, senior. "I feel that potential employers (I am a part time wedding singer) will look upon this event as telling of my musical ability."
