

Watch for brochures and registration forms in next edition of BC Bulletin!

While today you would be receiving your normal monthly edition of the Balanced Calendar Bulletin, we know families are busy with the hustle and bustle of spring break plans and your main focus right now is spending time with loved ones and making meaningful and wonderful family memories. We agree! That's why your next edition of the Balanced Calendar Bulletin will be arriving to your inbox next month in April.

This will be the edition you have been waiting for! It will contain the final brochures outlining the opportunities that will await students during the school year's three intersessions. We think students and parents alike will be pleased with the fun, fascinating and educational programs that will be offered during these four-day intersessions that will be held in October, February and May.

In addition, we will also include Registration Forms in the April Balanced Calendar Bulletin. We will be holding an Early Registration period from May 2—June 17 for those wanting to ensure a spot at intersessions.
